

2022 Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarship Winners!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 9, 2021

Calgary, Alberta – Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation (FCSF) are pleased to announce the recipients of their 2022 scholarships. It is great to see the optimism shown through our selection process, this year we saw seventeen applications from across Canada.

The quality and potential within the youth of our industry is great and while we would like to assist all those who applied, we are limited to our five scholarships: the Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarship (2), the Dr. Dixon Memorial Scholarship (2) and the Trevor Vance- First Year Scholarship (1), with a combined value of $12,000.

This year's recipients illustrated the bright future that our youth are presenting to the agriculture industry and Simmental breed.

Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarships valued at $3,000 each were awarded to Ariel Wilcox of Treherne, Manitoba and Brodyn LaBatte of Gladmar, Saskatchewan. Ariel is currently enrolled at the University of Manitoba to obtain her Master of Nursing and Brodyn is attending Olds College in Alberta taking Agriculture Management – Production Major.

Dr. Dixon Memorial Scholarships, in memory of Dr. Allan A. Dixon valued at $2,000 each were awarded to Bailey McCormack of Grenfell, Saskatchewan and Hannah Derksen of Winkler, Manitoba. Bailey is enrolled at the Western College of Remedial Massage Therapy to obtain her Massage Therapy Diploma and Hannah is at the University of Saskatchewan pursuing her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

Trevor Vance - First Year Scholarship, in memory of Trevor Edward Vance valued at $2,000 is awarded to Jackson Corner of Caledonia, Ontario. Jackson is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture at the University of Guelph in Ontario.

Garth Rancier, President of Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation commented “It is great to see so many high-quality applications from across Canada. Each of this year's recipients have displayed leadership, development skills and a dedication to their community, as well as the livestock industry. Congratulations to all this year's scholarship recipients and we wish all applicants the absolute best in your future education goals.”

The Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation is a not-for-profit charitable Foundation that is dedicated to scholarships and educational support of youth, as well as research for the improvement of Canadian agriculture.
