

2021 Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarship Winners!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 17, 2021

Calgary, Alberta – Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation (FCSF) are pleased to announce the recipients of their 2021 scholarships. It is great to see the optimism that was shown through our selection process this year and we saw more applications from more locations across Canada than ever before.

The quality and potential within the youth of our industry is great and while we would like to assist all those who applied, we are limited to five scholarships. This year's recipients illustrated the bright future that our youth are presenting to the agriculture industry and Simmental breed.

Scholarships that are being awarded for the 2021 – 2022 academic year include, the Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarship, the Dr. Dixon Memorial Scholarship and the Trevor Vance- First Year Scholarship, with a combined value of $12,000.

Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation Scholarships valued at $3,000 each were awarded to Cody Carson of Rossburn, Manitoba and Olivia Woytiuk of Shell Lake, Saskatchewan. Cody is currently enrolled in the Agriculture Business program at Lakeland College and Olivia is attending the Otero Junior College in Colorado also taking Agriculture Business.

The Dr. Dixon Memorial Scholarships, in memory of Dr. Allan A. Dixon valued at $2,000 each were awarded to Danielle Matonovich of Grandora, Saskatchewan and Wyatt Millar of Grandora, Saskatchewan. Danielle is at the University of Saskatoon obtaining her Bachelor of Science in Agribusiness and Wyatt is at the University of Saskatchewan taking Agriculture Business.

The Trevor Vance - First Year Scholarship, in memory of Trevor Edward Vance valued at $2,000 is awarded to Sydney Edwards of Hussar, Alberta. Sydney is taking her Bachelor of Kinetics at the University of British Columbia in the Okanagan.

Ken Lewis, President of Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation commented "It is great to see so many high quality scholarship applications spread out from across Canada. Each of this year's recipients have showcased leadership, development skills and a dedication to their community, as well as the livestock industry. Congratulations to all of this year's scholarship recipients and we wish all applicants the very best in your future education goals".

The Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation is a not-for-profit charitable Foundation that is dedicated to scholarships and educational support of youth, as well as research for the improvement of Canadian agriculture.
